

LOW INCOME TAXPAYER CLINIC

314-935-7238

law.wustl.edu/ClinicalEd/LITC_Client.aspx

We provide free legal representation to qualifying low income individuals in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service for:

- Audits
- Appeals
- Collection matters
- Federal tax litigation

We can also help taxpayers respond to IRS notices and correct account problems.

All of your documents and discussions with us will be held in strictest confidence. We are not part of the IRS or any government agency. Your decision to use our services will not affect your rights before the IRS.

WE CAN HELP WITH

- Audits
- Obtaining audit reconsideration
- Filing a U.S. Tax Court petition
- Appearing in U.S. Tax Court
- Preparing a settlement offer
- Requesting a stay in collection
- Settling tax debts through an IRS Offer in Compromise, known as the “Fresh Start” Program
- Setting up installment agreements
- Earned Income Tax Credit issues
- Injured Spouse claims
- Innocent Spouse relief

WE MAY BE ABLE TO REPRESENT YOU:

- If you have a dispute with the IRS
- If your income falls within 250 percent of federal poverty guidelines
- Based on an interview to discuss other issues that may affect your case and eligibility

We do not charge attorney fees, though you may have to pay court filing fees or costs associated with filing forms with the IRS.